HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
Hoofland's German Tonic.
The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

H

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

O

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc, is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases;

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

O

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well known remedies—

AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

F

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,
Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

L

It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD,
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 18, 1767.

A

"I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system.
Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD."

HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,
Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

N

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.
Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates St.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.
Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.
Yours truly,
E. D. FENDALL.

One More Grand Rally for the good Old Union.

TO FATHER ABRAHAM.

We are coming, Father Abraham,
About two million more,
Right forward on the good old path
You led us in before;
The same old fire in every heart,
The same old flag above,
And the leader that you gave us
We follow still in love.

CHORUS.

We are coming, we are coming,
Just as we came before,
In the day when first you called us,
About two million more.

We gave our blood, and so did you,
In those dark days gone by,
Nor will we be to-day less true
Than those who went to die.
With you they in the cold grave sleep,
They hear no trump or drum,
Nor will we o'er their glory weep,
But still, like them, we come.
We are coming, &c.

If you could but be with us now!—
But oh, our eyes are wet
To think that we shall hear no more
The voice that calls us yet.
We think we know what you would say
If you could call us still,
And so we follow Grant to-day,
And vote for him we will.
We are coming, &c.

GENERAL GRANT.

Reminiscences and Opinions of the General, by a Graduate of West Point, late a Major General United States Volunteers, and now a Colonel and Brevet Major General in the Regular Army.

I never shall forget one night that I spent with Gen. Grant. It was in the midst of the war, the battle of Chattanooga had been fought, the siege of Knoxville had been raised, and Grant was passing on horseback through Tennessee by way of Cumberland Gap, over steep and icy roads, in mid-winter—the winter of 1863–4—to look after affairs in the East.

My quarters were scanty, and we occupied a room together. During the early part of the evening the General was engaged with his A. A. G., over some correspondence with his different field commanders. Grant wrote or dictated the more important letters, some of which were read in my hearing, and I was struck by the ease, conciseness, and clearness of his composition. Every sentence was simple and pithy; there was little repetition, no indecision, nothing to correct. Few men can equal him in putting orders or reports concerning complicated movements into intelligible English. Business over, the weary A. A. G. retired to bed, but Grant showed no signs of fatigue, and sat up with me long after the witching hour, smoking and talking over old times, and discussing the progress of the war, the characters of men, and, to a certain extent, the future movements of the several armies. I had known him casually for many years, but never till now had I enjoyed so good an opportunity to judge of his intellectual calibre. His conversation flowed on placidly, a broad, strong, full stream, from topic to topic, evincing such a keen but comprehensive judgment of men and measures, generals and generalship, statesmen and statesmanship, as few would give him credit for at that day. His perception of character, as tested in some cases of my own familiar acquaintance, was wonderful. He appeared to read men like an open book (at a glance), or by some one action, or some slight manifestation beyond the ordinary ken. Hence his "lucky" choice of generals.

The next thing that impressed me, and that which is least known of him, was the peculiar quality of his mental operations in complicated affairs, viz, a power to generalize and to select and fasten his mind upon the prominent points, to the exclusion of enveloping details. His mind having once seized the right thread of any tissue of facts, he held to it with an inflexible grasp that was not to be shaken off by any power under the sun; there that fact stood, as plain to him as a mountain peak, lifting its head above the whole range; it was as simple to him, and in the course of his conversation it seemed almost as simple to you, as the alphabet—so simple, indeed, that you were not half inclined to give the man credit for his sagacity.

Most men would have strained themselves in the process of arriving at the culminating points of their reasoning; whereas, to Grant's mind, the culminations themselves were so apparent that there was no labor. These mighty plans that he talks over in such a plain, unassuming, unconscious way, seem like the most ordinary combinations of an ordinary mind. You do not realize their greatness until afterward, and then you begin to do justice to the man that does himself so little justice in his manner of speech. His thoughts are not the least clogged with the process itself through which a problem is solved. His insight cuts like a sword through each gordian knot, and there lies the result, divested of all mystery—the very pith and marrow of the matter in hand.

This power of dealing only with the preponderating facts, and of losing sight of all the cumbersome array which commonly weighs down weaker souls, is the law of Grant's mind. Call it abstraction, generalization, concentration, or what you will, it is the highest law of intellect, such as Cæsar and Napoleon displayed in government, Newton and Laplace in science, and Goethe in art. Great truths are always clear to great minds. But Grant is a master workman rather than a thinker. He disregards abstract rules and formularies, and advances straight from a survey of the field to the right conclusion as to the work to be done. He scarcely seems to know whether he has violated principles laid down in the books, but unconsciously carries out new principles, and his deeds speak for him. In every emergency the question with Grant is, what is the best thing to be done? and that, with him, is the only thing; that he always seems to discover at the right time and in the right place. It is a gift; not the gift of inspiration, but the intuition of prodigious common sense, genius bounded by utility.

Make Old "Huntingdon" good for 1200.

I had good opportunities afterward, in the course of the war, to observe the strong leader as he knit together the links which throttled the rebellion. Always intent on the essential objects, which he had for the most part long held in view, and which the public itself now begin to discern, never embarrassed by troublesome details, he crushed the Confederacy by taxing the supreme resources of the country, and directing the blows of his generals, stroke after stroke, to the two or three main on which issues, success depended. The rebellion collapsed so suddenly that the world was astonished. The idea of "luck" was dispelled, and people began to estimate the greatness of the central figure which now loomed up above the heads of all our chieftains.

It is because few persons have opportunities to see Grant in his element, at work, overmastering events, and because he makes such a commonplace show in his ordinary intercouse with people, that the elementary strength of his character is not visible to the world. Especially is he deficient in conversation with strangers on subjects which one might naturally expect would draw him out. But it is a rare thing for him to be drawn out. He does not talk for effect.—He knows nothing but utility. Most men converse well in the line of their own art—they dote on the weapons of their skill; but to Grant his own art is no art—it is all common sense; and such is his dislike of every kind of display that he would sooner pass, with the Welsh philosopher, for an idiot, in a crowd, than for the best talker in America.

Human greatness can best be measured by the magnitude of the difficulties that are overcome. In this case, other great soldiers being the judges, the difficulties were so great that Grant alone, of all the chieftains in the field, was able to overcome them. There were men of talent and genius around him, but only in Grant appeared that combination of mind and heart which was absolutely necessary to success in the late colossal struggle. I doubt whether there can be found one of his lieutenants who will not frankly admit that, in some particular quality, Grant excelled him, and such a quality was essential to success. Many of his characteristics are well known, but they can be best grouped by comparing him with his best historical likeness, namely, Wellington.

Wellington was not a genius, but the quintessence of common sense. He was cold, and inspired no enthusiasm in his troops; without personal ostentation, but with such perfect sincerity of character as forbade display or egotism; cool, cautious, daring, and indefatigable; of a mind so equally balanced that prosperity could not elate nor adversity depress him; undazzled by victory, undismayed by defeat, rugged in honesty, staunch in patriotism, concise in utterance, he was as intensely English as Grant is intensely American; he was the rock against which French enthusiasm dashed itself into froth, as Grant was the tower against which Southern chivalry tilted itself into splinters.

Yet he was more a man of privilege than Grant. He worshipped his order and was a Tory, while Grant worships his country and believes in the common right of man. He could, like Grant, endure everything, but could not, like Grant, dare everything. In this respect Wellington resembled Sherman; he feared no danger that he could see, while Grant fears no danger whether he can see it or not. Like Grant, the Iron Duke was strong in his clear heart. He could grasp the greatest events; howbeit he remembered the smallest details, and thus embarrassed himself in cases where Grant would have been free. Grant seizes the mightiest events, and leaves the details to men of detail, judging and knowing his man by an intuitive sagacity equalled only by Napoleon.

No one but Wellington has been equal to Grant in simplicity, uprightness, and massiveness of character; or so free from selfishness, jealousy, vanity, passion, meanness, and irresolution. Nothing ever distorted the vision of either man; neither possessed the imaginative faculty; both were generous, but Grant is magnanimous, while neither Wellington nor Grant has been so much indebted to fortune as to the practical force of his own intellect.

In civil affairs it was to the wisdom, moderation, and patriotism of Wellington that England looked to save her from revolution, as America now looks to Grant for a similar salvation.

"The statesman, warrior—moderate, resolute,
Whole in himself, a common good,
The man of largest influence,
Yet freest from ambition's crime:
Our greatest, yet with least pretence—
Great in council and great in war,
Foremost captain of his time;
Rich in saving common sense,
And, as the greatest only are,
In his simplicity sublime!"

Will you Let the South have all it Fought for?

What the North Dreads.

From the New York Commercial Advertiser.

In his letter to Wade Hampton and others, accepting an invitation to address "ten thousand people" at Columbia, S. C., John Quincy Adams, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts, writes:—

"The interest and, I doubt not, the convictions of the dominant party will prevent any dispassionate consideration of your case until after the election. It is declared, and, I fear, it is widely believed, that the spirits of secession still fire the Southern heart, and works through the Democratic party. A mass of honest men are taught and believe that the success of that party means the political re-establishment of the genius of revolt, and the elevation to power of the Southern leaders in the war.

* * * * * * *

"If the Democratic party is defeated in their canvass, it is because the people fear its success would jeopardize the substantial results of the war.

* * * * * * *

"These fears mingle largely in the canvass, and will exert a strong influence in the result."

Mr. Adams here hits the nail on the head exactly. The supporters of the Union dread the election of Seymour and Blair because they are irrevocably pledged by their platform backers, and mouthpieces to a renewal of the turmoil and bloodshed from which we have just escaped. They believe that the leaders of the Southern Rebellion have become the leaders of the Democratic party; that whereas in 1860 they divided the party to secure secession and revolution, they have now united it for the same purpose. They believe that "the spirit of secession still fires the Southern heart," and permeates the Democratic organization.

Neither is it possible to escape these conclusions. The whole tone, temper, and conduct of these party leaders during the past four months can admit of no other construction. When the more cautious and far-seeing endeavored to run the party into a conservative groove at the National Convention, they were ignored, while those who endeavored to occupy progressive ground were unceremoniously shoveled under. Hampton, Forrest, Vance, and others, obtained control of the Convention. They dictated the platform and candidates, and, fresh from the committee room, proceeded South to inform the unrepentant rebels that the ends for which they fought were to be secured. From that day to this the air has been filled with the mutterings of revolution. Taking their cue from Blair's Broadhead letter, Democratic orators and mouthpieces, North as well as South, have boldly proclaimed that, in the event of success, they purposed to tear Congressional laws into shreds, and disperse Congress and the Congressional "usurpations" at the South with the bayonet. The people thus clearly perceive that with Seymour and Blair as President and Vice President, another era of anarchy and discord would be forthwith inaugurated. In the outrages which are now being perpetrated all over the late Confederacy, they have a foretaste of what would follow the success of the Democratic party. And it is because of this that they are now rallying with such unanimity and determination to the support of Grant, who declares "let us have peace." We have in this dread an explanation of the fact that General Dix and all other leading Democrats who did not sympathize with the rebellion are declaring for Grant regardless of party ties. It explains why it is that the Democratic rank and file are deserting in shoals to the Republican party.

HOW THE DEBT WILL BE PAID.—In answer to that query, Judge Kelley, in a recent address, said:—"Let us look at the future, and see if we cannot discover something cheering to soothe our agitated nerves. The census reports from 1790 prove that our population doubles every 20 years. It is increasing more rapidly than ever before. Hitherto immigrants came only from Europe. But now they are pouring into the Pacific States from China, whose people number 500,000,000, or double the population of Western Europe. Ten thousand Chinese are employed in building the Pacific end of the Union Railroad of which I have spoken, and every steamer that arrives brings from 800 to 1000 of these industrious people. But to return: our population doubles in twenty years, and if not another dollar of debt be paid till then, the share of each American citizen in 1888 will be $25, and his share of the interest involve a tax of a dollar and a half per year, or less than three cents a week. But what will the wealth of the country then be? If we may judge from its progress since 1850, it will have attained the almost inconceivable sum of $800,000,000,000. It would therefore be unwise to tax the present generation to extinguish the debt. The Democrats have clamored for the payment of the debt by the generation that contracted it. Such was the theory of Andrew Johnson and Secretary McCulloch. But the Republican party in Congress, beholding our marvellous progress in population and the rapidly increasing wealth of the country, felt that the generation that had been harassed by the war should not be oppressed by the burden of extinguishing a debt incurred by its successful prosecution, as it had been waged for prosperity. They therefore sought to so apportion the taxes as to merely provide each year for the current expenses and the payment of the interest. But they have been unable to reduce them safely with sufficient rapidity to accomplish this, and the debt has gone on paying itself. And while our policy has been to relieve industry and capital of all unnecessary burdens until the country should be restored to its normal condition, and the Southern States be in the full enjoyment of their productive power, we have paid more than $250,000,000 of the principal of the public debt, and have paid in back pay and bounties and pensions to our soldiers, and their widows and orphans, nearly $700,000,000 more. During the height of the war everything was taxed; during the three years since the war, taxes have been removed from more than ten thousand distinct articles. On no one of the questions now at issue may the policies of the two parties be contrasted with greater advantage to the Republican party than upon this question of taxation."

A Victory Now for Grant will give us Peace.

The Duty of Democrats.

The Pittsburg Post, the organ of the Allegheny Democracy, in June last, spoke as follows of Gen. Grant. Democrats would do well to read the article with care now, and act up to its teachings:

THE DUTY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN A CERTAIN EVENT.

"Suppose that * * * General Grant should be nominated for the Presidency by the Republican party, what course ought the Democratic party to pursue? Ought we to nominate a man in opposition to General Grant? Ought we to charge him with being an enemy to his country, or in favor of unjust measures, merely because he may have received said nomination? * * *

We are inclined to believe that more depends upon General Grant now, than upon any other individual in the United States. We believe him to be far superior to the majority of the far-sighted politicians, who have been ruling the nation, without bringing peace or economy to our legislation. He is known to all the people as A STRAIGHT-FORWARD MAN, and so far as can be judged a man well disposed to deal fairly with the people of all sections of the Union. Certainly if such a man were nominated by the Democratic party, we would advocate his election in the hope that his election would conduce to the public welfare. The question is, then, if he is nominated by the Republican party, whether we shall as a party oppose his election?

* * * * * * *

In the first place, if the people generally believe General Grant to be the man we think he is, no individual in the United States could command a corporal's guard against him—ON ANY PLEA WHATEVER. In the second place, it would be unjust and very injurious action for our Democratic leaders to attempt to place the Democratic party in a false position before the world, representing them as enemies or opponents of General Grant.

* * * * * * *

What better thing can we do in case of General Grant's nomination by the Republican party than to VOTE FOR HIM FOR THE PRESIDENCY? Our aim should be to strengthen his hands; to render him as much as possible independent of party, and to ELECT HIM AS THE PRESIDENT OF THE PEOPLE. If unanimously, so much the better.

WE SOLEMNLY BELIEVE THAT IF THE PEOPLE GENERALLY OF THE UNITED STATES CAN COME TOGETHER WITH REAL UNANIMITY ON GENERAL GRANT, IN REGARD TO THE PRESIDENCY, IT WILL BE THE HAPPIEST THING FOR OUR COUNTRY THAT COULD POSSIBLY OCCUR. The future good effects of this course are almost incalculable. We earnestly urge our Democratic friends everywhere to consider this subject carefully."

The Party of Blunders.

Did ever the world witness such blundering as the Democratic party has been guilty of during the past eight years, to say nothing of James Buchanan's administration.

It blundered at the South in declaring war against the Government—a blunder that cost them two hundred thousand lives and ten thousand millions of devastation and depression in business.

It blundered in the North in sympathizing with the rebel section of the party—a blunder that cost the North three hundred thousand lives and four thousand millions of taxation and debt.

It blundered at Chicago in declaring the war a failure when the Confederacy was then but a shell.

Seymour blundered in stepping upon the New York platform after his June speech, declaring that the debt must be paid in coin, and showing that much of it was held by the working class.

Blair blundered in his letter to Broadhead, declaring another revolution and civil war.

The New York Convention blundered in making Vallandingham, Hampton, Forrest, &c., the master spirits of the occasion, and taking from them the doctrines of the campaign.

Pendleton blundered in his greenback inflation for the payment of the debt and the robbery of the public creditor.

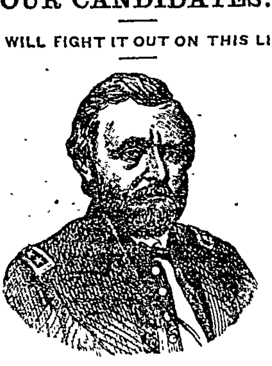
OUR CANDIDATES:

"WE WILL FIGHT IT OUT ON THIS LINE."



FOR PRESIDENT,

ULYSSES S. GRANT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

Give One Day More
To Defeat Rebel Rule.

☞The sure way to peace, elect Grant and Colfax and keep traitors to your country on a back seat.

☞Make no mistake, vote for the man who saved your country from rebel rule and ruin.

☞Elect the man who can command peace and give prosperity to our whole country.

☞We will have peace under Grant and Colfax, but under Seymour and Blair we will have revolution and bloodshed.

☞Grant or Seymour—loyal men or rebels—which shall it be that will rule our country? Let your ballot be for Grant and Union men everywhere.

☞Chief Justice Chase thinks the majority of the progressive Democracy which wanted him as candidate will rally to the support of Grant.

☞Soldiers, will you vote the same ticket as Hampton, Forrest, and all the rest of the rebels? They will vote for Seymour and Blair, and will you follow their lead?

☞Union men, don't think the victory won until you have fought the battle on the 3d of November. The rebels have had a Gettysburg, but let us give them an Appomattox.

☞The election of Grant will secure peace everywhere. The Rebels know him and they fear him. He will be positive and Rebels will quickly take the hint.

☞Coffee-Pot Wallace addresses his followers thus: "You have fought a good fight." After the next election he can add, "and you have finished your course."

☞The Rebels at Suffolk, Va., received a dispatch on the night of the election in this State, giving them bogus returns of large Democratic gains. They immediately run up the rebel flag.

☞Work, Work, Work, from this time on to the 3d of November for the election of Grant and Colfax. You have the rebels opposed to you, who are working hard to elect Seymour and Blair.

☞The struggle on the 3d of Nov. is to determine whether this government shall or shall not pass into the control of unrepentant rebels. If you want rebels to take a back seat vote for Grant's electors.

Send us the Returns.

We hope our friends in the several townships of the county will send us the returns early on next Wednesday morning, so that we can give all our readers the election news.

☞You must fight the battle over again—the contest is the same as it was in 1864—Rebels or Union men will rule—make your choice. Grant, our great leader, saved us once—he can protect us all the time if we give him the power.

☞Wade Hampton, Semmes, Forrest, and all the most cruel Rebel leaders, are actively working for the election of Seymour and Blair. How is it possible for any Union man to work with them. Grant should receive the vote of every man opposed to the late rebellion.

Grant men, UP AND AT THEM! Don't allow the opposition to take a single man from you in any one of your districts in the county. Watch them closely. Take their men if you can, but be sure that you do not lose any. The "Democracy" will work more desperately than ever to defeat you. Watch them and swamp them.

ONLY ONE WEEK.

Union men of Huntingdon county, are you working to defeat the Rebel candidates Seymour and Blair—men who have been placed in nomination for the highest offices in our Government. Remember that it was Rebel influence that put them in nomination, and remember that should they be elected they will not dare to hesitate to carry out the wishes of the men who gave them such prominence. Remember that the success of Seymour and Blair will give the Rebels control of Washington—will give them control of all the patronage of the Government. All our brave boys fought for will then be lost. Up then and WORK—work for your country, work with the ballot as earnestly as our Boys in Blue worked with the sword and the musket to defeat rebels in the field. You have the same enemy to oppose you opposed in '64. You have as your leader the man who led our army to victory. Up then and never tire until your last vote is polled for Grant and Colfax. See that every vote is out. VOTE EARLY, and remain at the polls and see that every Grant and Colfax man votes and votes the right ticket. Be sure that your tickets are right. The opposition will not hesitate to cheat you if they can.

Elect Grant and Colfax and Have PEACE.

A word to Union Democrats

Union Democrats you have always felt right toward your country. When Rebels took up arms to destroy your Government, you either left your homes to face the enemy, or cheered and encouraged those who did go. When our Boys in Blue gained a victory, you rejoiced. When the rebels and their sympathizers were defeated, you shouted with joy. The fight is the same now as then, only it is with the ballot. Which side are you on—with the Rebels and their sympathizers, or with the Union men with Grant again as their leader. If you vote for Seymour and Blair you not only give the Rebel butchers aid and comfort, but you give your influence and political ballot to place them in power over you and the Union men of the whole country. Vote for Seymour and Blair and you vote against the great leader who led our armies to victory and saved our country from Rebel rule. Union Democrats, be not blinded by the cry of "Democratic party"—the Democracy that would place in power your most bitter enemies—the enemies of our country—is not the Democracy of your fathers—is not the Democracy of the Jackson Democratic party. Vote for Grant and Colfax and you will be where you were during the war, with Union men, fighting traitors, rebels, and their sympathizers.

Elect Seymour and Blair and You will have REVOLUTION & BLOODSHED.

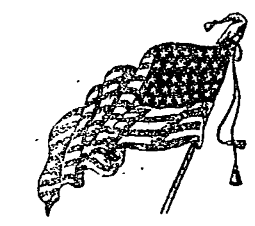
The Bullet Once, Now the Ballot.

Remember, voters, you are preparing for a battle with ballots on the 3d of November. There are two armies in the field—one is the Union army and the other is the rebel army. The battle is to be fought on Northern as well as Southern soil. The pardoned rebels in the South who have the exercise of the ballot intend to vote for Seymour and Blair, because in their election they expect to obtain all they fought for with the bullet. The great Union army, once more under the lead of General Grant, must prepare to meet them, and as the rebels were overpowered by the bullet, so now they must be overpowered by the ballot, if we want peace restored and the Union perpetuated.

Is there any Union man, knowing that the rebel army is again in the field, who is afraid to meet them? And are you willing now to give over everything you fought to maintain, by voting to place in power Seymour and Blair, who are ready to admit to a share of the Government such rebels as Jeff Davis, Wade Hampton, Forrest, Preston and others? If you are not willing to surrender, then buckle on your armor, and aim all your ballots against the enemies of your country.

Taxes, TAXES, TAXES!—High now, but what may we expect them to be should Seymour and Blair be elected. Remember, voters, that if Seymour and Blair should be elected, revolution would follow—follow just as certain as that the Rebels will try to elect Seymour and Blair on the 3d of November next. What then? Every able-bodied man will have to shoulder his gun again and leave his home to fight rebels—to fight the battle over again. What then? More taxes to feed and cloth the men—more taxes to fill the pockets of speculators—more taxes to crush traitors and rebels. Honest independent voters of Huntingdon county go to the polls on the 3d day of November and help to elect Grant and Colfax and our country will have peace, and our people will be happy and prosperous. Work and vote to save what you have.

☞The Rebels say fight—with Seymour and Blair elected, Rebel rule or fight we would have.



Rally 'round the Flag, boys,
Rally once again!
Vote for GRANT and COLFAX,
And—we'll have a bully time.

EXAMINE YOUR TICKETS.

The Last Grand Struggle, Elect Grant and Colfax and Save Your Country from Rebel Rule.

NULLIFICATION.—The Democracy are as clearly committed to nullification in the support of Seymour, as were the Democracy years ago, in the support of John C. Calhoun. At the Convention which nominated Seymour, the Democracy passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, THAT WE REGARD THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS (so-called) OF CONGRESS AS USURPATIONS AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL, REVOLUTIONARY AND VOID"

The convention which passed the above infamous resolve did not contain a single loyal man as a delegate from any of the lately revolted States, the representatives of which were all ex-rebels of distinction, who continued to boast of their devotion to the lost cause, and their hate of the Yankee idea of government. Wade Hampton, the man who led the bloodiest charge made by rebel cavalry against Union troops, and who urged, on more than one occasion, the raising of the black flag, was a delegate from South Carolina, and voted for the nomination of Seymour. Here is Hampton's own construction of the meaning of this resolution, delivered at a mass meeting of the rebel Democracy before he left New York:

"We can have no relief until the Democratic party will come out and pledge itself that the white people of the South shall vote. I want all to register an oath that when they do vote, their votes shall be counted, AND IF THERE IS A MAJORITY OF WHITE VOTES, THAT YOU WILL PLACE SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN THE WHITE HOUSE IN SPITE OF ALL THE BAYONETS THAT SHALL BE BROUGHT AGAINST THEM."

After pondering such language, the man who votes for Horatio Seymour for President, is ready to vote for Jeff Davis or Robert E. Lee for any office in the gift of the people of the United States.—State Guard.

TAX-PAYERS, If you want Heavier Taxes
VOTE FOR
Seymour and Blair and More Trouble

☞The Democracy are divided. Since the late elections many of the most prominent leaders want new candidates. The Rebs refuse to surrender; they say they will fight it out with Seymour and Blair and nobody else. If the election was not so near at hand we have no doubt that Seymour and Blair would be thrown overboard by the Northern Democracy and new candidates be nominated. The difficulty in the Democratic party will drive thousands of good men to the support of Grant and Colfax.

Grant Men, Deceive Them.

The Seymour men expect to have an advantage over us in the next contest because of our elation over our success at the late election. They say our over-sanguine confidence will slacken our exertions. We hope our friends in every district will deceive them by polling a heavier vote than was polled for the State ticket.

The Late Elections.

Pennsylvania 9,775. Ohio 16,965. Indiana 1500. Nebraska 2400. West Virginia 3000—all Republican. Our Legislature will stand, 3 majority in the Senate, and 24 majority in the House.

Everything looks lovely for a grand victory in November, but don't neglect to work and vote on that account.

GRANT MEN READ.
The enemy are at work to defeat You.

Grant men read the following article which we copy from the Harrisburgh Patriot, the State organ of the Seymour and Blair party. It will show you how easily you may be defeated if you fail to have out your full vote, and fail to vote every man for Grant.

[From the Harrisburg Patriot.]

ONE IN EVERY HUNDRED.—The Radical State Ticket has been elected by a majority less than ten thousand, in a total vote of six hundred and fifty thousand. It will require a change of less than one vote in every hundred, to give the Democratic electors a majority of the ballots to be cast in Pennsylvania on the 3d of November. Take one vote in every hundred from the Radical side and place it in the Democratic column, and you have a change in fovor of the latter of 13,000 votes, which will overcome the present Radical majority by upwards of 3,000.—Now, let the Democrats of every election district in the State, determine to change at least one vote in every hundred, and Pennsylvania will be triumphantly carried for Seymour and Blair."

The Patriot further remarks:

"There is no despondency in our ranks—on the contrary there seems to be a universal determination on the part of the Democracy here, there, and everywhere, to fight the Presidential battle with renewed strength—to bring the whole power of the party into the struggle, and by force of principle and numbers, elect Horatio Seymour and Gen. Blair."

Give One Day More to Save Your Country From Rebel rule

☞Seymour is now trying to save himself. He has taken to speech making. He has made speeches in New York—made one at Cleveland, Ohio, on Friday—will make others before Tuesday next. "Taxation and debt" is his hobby—but he forgets to tell his hearers that his friends made "taxation and debt" necessary to save the country from being destroyed by his rebel friends. He may be able to rally his "friends," but they will not be numerous enough to frighten the Grant army of loyal men.

Our Majority in the State.

Hartranft over Boyle, 9,677; Campbell over Ent, 9,179—leaving our strict party majority about 9,500. This majority can easily be overcome by the "Democrats" if Union Republicans in every election district in the State fail to poll their full vote for Grant and Colfax on Tuesday next. Union Republicans of Huntingdon county, don't leave it to be said after the election that you failed to do your whole duty.

"NOW'S THE TIME TO DRIVE THEM."—Grant.

Grant men of the county, you nobly met the enemy at the late election, and defeated them handsomely — and "now's the time to drive them." Give them another fight of the same kind on the 3d, (only a little more so, if possible,) and you'll all rejoice the more the day after. Make "Old Huntingdon" the banner county.

☞Gen. Grant was burnt in effigy at Cynthiana, Ky, on the night of the 16th inst., by the "Democracy." They first hung the effigy to a tree in front of the Court House, and then built an immense bonfire and Grant was burnt in effigy, the crowd shouting for Seymour and Blair, and cursing Grant. The La Crosse Democrat "Democracy" in this State, will soon be educated up to the standard of the Kentucky Democracy.

SOLDIERS, Vote as you Shot

☞The National Intelligencer, the recognized organ of President Johnson in Washington City, has been read out of the Democratic party there because it strenuously urges the nomination of new men in place of Seymour and Blair. The course of the Intelligencer is the heaviest blow the Democracy have yet received. It is possible that it may come square over for Grant and Colfax before the election.

☞The election of Grant our only hope of peace. The Rebels in the South have taken courage since they were successful in naming the candidates for the Democratic party. Already the murder of Union men in most of the Rebel States is an every day occurrence. How will it be with Union men in the South if the Rebels should succeed in electing Seymour and Blair?

☞The Philadelphia Mercury, a prominent "Democratic" paper, says the people must believe that would-be Vice President Frank Blair is either a "traitor or a madman." Such is the material the "Democracy" offer for the highest office in the gift of the people. Well, we think Frank will be mad before he is elected to the second office.

☞It is not alone the Republican party that would be benefited by the defeat of Seymour and Blair—the whole people, Democrats and Republicans would enjoy the blessings of peace which would be permanently secured by the election of Grant and Colfax.

The War Democrats Moving solid for Grant.

An immense meeting of War Democrats was held in New York on Wednesday evening last. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That in our judgment as war Democrats here assembled, the true interests of the country demand of every citizen at the coming election an earnest inquiry as to whether the happiness and prosperity of the people of all classes will not be materially promoted by regarding the instincts of patriotic feeling, instead of obeying the demands of mere party leaders, who seek their individual interests instead of the common welfare of all.

Resolved, That in view of the deliberate declarations of one of the chief nominees of the Democratic National Convention, promising us discord if not revolution in the future, instead of harmony and peace, we should not as citizens be unmindful of the dangerous consequences which must come from placing our Government under the control of men thus reckless and revolutionary.

And when in addition we are presented a platform whose principal feature is the repudiation of a national debt incurred while our country was distracted by a rebellion, and to the payment of which we have deliberately pledged our honor as a nation, we feel it to be our solemn duty to protest and declare that we will have neither part nor lot in a political party controlled by such men and maintained for the accomplishment of such revolutionary and dishonest purposes.

Resolved, That the time-honored policy which guided the Democratic party in other and better days steadily and effectually inculcated principles of duty and justice, devotion to the Union, an unfaltering determination to uphold the Constitution and maintain the national faith and honor. We desire to preserve and perpetuate these principles, and therefore we insist—First, That the plighted faith of the nation shall not be violated nor its name and credit disgraced. Second, That while we would treat the States lately in rebellion with lenient justice we will never consent to surrender the government into the hands of unrepentent rebels who have so recently sought to destroy it. Third. That we are unalterably opposed to the repudiating doctrines of the New York platform, and spurn with indignation the revolutionary threats uttered by one of its candidates. And, finally, confidently believing that the peace, safety and prosperity of the whole country will be insured and the national honor preserved unsullied by the elevation of General Ulysses S. Grant to the office of President, we do hereby pledge our earnest, united and hearty exertions to secure his election.

ONE VOTE,
ONE VOTE,
ONE VOTE,
ONE VOTE,

Grant men, Remember, that it takes a change of but ONE vote of every hundred cast in the State at the late election for the Union Republican ticket, to give the State to Seymour and Blair on the 3d of November. Be vigilant—poll every vote in every district for the man who saved our country from being destroyed by Rebels.

☞The Philadelphia Daily News, a paper favoring the success of the so-called Democratic party gives the following as its opinion:

"It is admitted on all sides that the fate of Seymour and Blair is sealed, and that they are but as dead wood in the pathway of a host of people who desire to go forward. They must go out of the way, or the party that has put them up will go back to the grave from whence they were exhumed."

General McClellan on Grant.

"Separated as I am from the distinguished soldier who has been chosen as the leader of our opponents, I know that you will agree with me in the highest respect for the services he has rendered our country."—GEN GEORGE B. MCCLELLAN.

BOYS IN BLUE,

Remember, that in voting for Grant you vote for your great leader who stood by your country in her hour of need—and in voting for Seymour you vote to elevate to power men who fought against the Government you sacrificed much to maintain.

MIXED TICKETS.

Grant men see that you are not deceived with mixed tickets on the 3d as some of you were at the late election. Get your tickets from true men who will take the time and trouble to see that they are right—not spurious.

☞The task of defeating treason and rebellion was committed to the hands of loyal men—loyal men crushed treason and rebellion and they must now occupy the front seats, to prevent treason from becoming respectable. Grant and Colfax leads the column.

☞The President and Secretary of the Democratic Soldiers' and Sailors organization in Washington City, have resigned their positions and came out for Grant and Colfax. Everywhere there are changes of the same kind to the support of the great leader who lead the Boys in Blue to victory.

☞Old Huntingdon gave 975 majority for the Union Republican State ticket at the late election. She can do better for Grant and Colfax on Tuesday next. Every man to work—work early—work late—work all the time.—Give one more full day to your country, and our majority will be 1200.

☞The Johnny Rebs will do their best on the third of November. It will be their last fight to get control of our Government. If all Union men are true to themselves they will vote solid for Grant and Colfax. In Union there is strength.

☞"Treason must be made odious," and those who took up the sword, the musket and the torch, to murder and destroy must repent before they can be trusted as our law-makers.

☞All opposed to Rebel rule, once more to the charge and elect the man who crushed the rebellion.

The New Rebellion Commenced.

Special Telegram to the Philadelphia Press.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—An eye-witness who was present at the recent horrible outrage in Franklin states that on the night of the 17th inst, Judge Chase, formerly of the Ohio Legislature, and Colonel Pope, Sheriff, late commander of the thirty-third Illinois Volunteers, were sitting, at half past 8 o'clock p. m, on the rear balcony of their hotel, when a band of men rushed upon them and shot Col. Pope almost to pieces

In the struggle Judge Chase escaped to the street, but was finally shot and stabbed. The citizens refused coffins to be made for them, and treated their remains with barbarous indignities. A company of Seymour Knights were drawn up in line near the hotel when this occurred. Col. Pope's remains were forwarded to Illinois to-day, with his wife, who has become a raving maniac.

Information has been received of the assassination of Robert Gray, justice of the peace of Caddo parish, on the 14th inst, and Bernard Saulet, sheriff of Iberville, whilst in bed with his wife, on the night of the 19th instant. As I have before stated, between now and the Presidential election there will be a wholesale slaughter of Union men.

New Orleans, October 24th.—A row occurred to-night about ten o'clock, between the white and negro clubs.—The white clubs passed down St. Charles street, immediately in the rear of a colored club, and so continued until they reached Canal street. Shots were heard, and both clubs rapidly left the grounds, and none are now to be seen. Three negroes were killed. Canal street, in the neighborhood of the melee, is strewn with the debris of torches and oil lamps. A large and excited crowd is gathering in Canal street. The locality is the same as that where the former disturbance occurred. Nothing can be learned as to the origin of the disturbance, owing to the excited state of the people. One white man is reported killed, and a white boy shot in the hand.

New York, October 24—The Tribune's New Orleans special says: Outrages and murders are increasing throughout the State Last night a mob of disguised men broke into jail at Carrolltown and killed two negro prisoners. The Evening Picayune says no one can blame them. At a large fire in Gretna last night, a disturbance occurred, and three blacks were killed and several wounded. The rest fled to Algiers and the swamps. This morning quite a large number of white men crossed from here. General Rosseau stopped the ferry boats and sent a company of infantry to aid the one hundred policemen who were there preserving the peace. The Evening Times says: The long impending conflict seems fairly commenced. General Rosseau has requested two additional regiments. At nine o'clock an armed mob of four hundred men ordered the Metropolitan police to leave Gretna.

Washington, October 24—Information has been received at the Freedmen's Bureau, through unofficial sources, that William C. Kirkham, agent for the Bureau for Northeastern Texas, was murdered at Boston, Texas, on the 7th.

St. Louis, October 24—The Democrat has a special from Little Rock, Arkansas, as follows: Hon. James Hinds, member of Congress from the Second District, was assassinated to day while traveling through Monroe. Hon. James R. Brooks, who was with Mr. Hinds, was wounded, but it is supposed not fatally. James Coolsey, an outspoken Republican, was murdered in the same county, near Clarendon, a few days since.

From the Washington Chronicle of Friday.

It has been the determination of the rebels of South Carolina to exterminate all white Union men residing in the State. More especially is their hatred extended toward the leaders of the Republican party, and within the past fifteen days twenty-five murders of Union men have been committed in Abbeville county alone, two of whom were members of the Legislature. Colored men have been taken from their beds at night, their shirts drawn over their heads, and then brutally beaten.

Armed bodies of the Ku-Klux patrol the county, and with murderous aim shoot down the husband and father as he sits at the table with his family.—The civil authorities in nearly every case will not seek out the murderers. In counties where the sheriff is disposed to act he is powerless—can get no assistance. The Ku-Klux have sworn to kill every Union member of the Legislature ere the day for assembling, desiring a new election to be held, and by the intimidation of the colored men at the polls secure the State government to themselves, and carry on bloody warfare. In the event of the election of Seymour and Blair, one of the most prominent Democratic politicians stated that it was the intention of the Southern "white men" to call a convention composed of the same, up set the present State governments and make them to suit the principles for which they fought through a long and bloody war.

Over 15,000 stand of arms have been imported into the State (from New York city mostly) within the past few weeks, which are of the most improved pattern, (the repeater firing seventeen times,) and large quantities of ammunition accompanying Daily and nightly drills are had, and all of the officers who have served in the rebel army from that State participate, including Wade Hampton, who is the recognized leader. Blair's letter is bearing fruit, and Perry, Hampton, Gibbs, Thomas and others countenance all the outrages and murders that are being perpetrated, and Governor Scott finds himself powerless to interfere.

☞The Rebels and the sympathizers with the rebellion are all on one side—for Seymour and Blair. All Union men should be on the other side—for Grant and Colfax—but they are not; many Democrats, Union men at heart, will go it blind for their party and vote for Rebels to rule.

☞Union men, remember that the fight has just begun, and the great battle of the campaign is to be fought on the 3d of November. The rebels will vote for Seymour and Blair. Will you vote with them?

No. 9. Adjourned Meeting, October 5th, 1868. The Council met pursuant to adjournment. Present: Chief Burgess, Mr. Glazier; Asst. Burgesses, Messrs. Miller and Elliott; Council, Messrs. Black, Carmon, Cunningham, Helfright, Jackson and Port.

Mr. Miller, from the special committee appointed to confer with Mr. Zachariah Yenter, in relation to the purchase of a part of a lot No. 97, for the use of the borough, made report that Mr. Yenter would sell 23 feet front on Washington street by 50 feet deep, for $900.

On motion, the report was accepted, and the committee was authorized to purchase the ground at a price not exceeding the sum named.

The special committee on Cemetery board walk made report that a majority of the committee had failed to meet, and asked further time, which on motion was granted.

On motion of Mr. Black it was

George Taylor, to furnish stone to cover the road bed of Washington street, from Mr. Fisher's crossing to the angle of said street, opposite the lot No. 9, on the plan of West Huntingdon, now owned by John Foster.

A communication from Messrs. Potter & Johnston, agreeing to furnish stone for street crossings in West Huntingdon, at the rate of $8·75 per crossing of 24 feet in length and 4 feet in breadth, was read and on motion the committee on streets were authorized to contract with said parties at the rates named in their communication, for stone sufficient to lay such crossings as they may deem necessary.

Mr. Black offered the following preamble and resolution which were read, considered and adopted:

"Important Advice to Voters!"

"On the third day of November the voters of Huntingdon county will be called upon to discharge a sacred duty they owe to themselves. There are two parties in the contest, both rallying around the Flag of their Country. One of these parties is doomed to defeat, and with that defeat there will be a great depression of spirits, superinducing a loss of appetite and an entire derangement of the digestive organs, or animal functions. The unfortunate in the contest, aforesaid, will find a wholesale panacea in Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic that will speedily restore the tone of their stomachs and enable them to resume business. These preparations are for sale by Druggists and dealers in Medicine everywhere." 1t

33d district, composed of the borough of Mount Union, at school house No. 1, in said borough.

34th district, composed of the Borough of Broad Top City, at the Public School House, in said Borough.

I also make known and give notice, as in and by the 13th section of the aforesaid act I am directed, that "every person, excepting justices of the peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or corporated district, whether a commissioned officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, executive or judiciary department of this State, or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also, that every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, commissioners of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no inspector or judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then voted for."

Also, that in the 4th section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to executions and for other purposes," approved April 16th, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so construed as to prevent any militia or borough officer from serving as judge, or inspector or clerk of any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

In accordance with the provision of the 8th section of an act entitled "A further supplement to the election Laws of this Commonwealth," I publish the following:

WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled "an act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out of the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March 3d, 1865, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof;

And whereas, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the Constitution and laws of Pennsylvania qualified electors of this Commonwealth.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That in all elections hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, it shall be unlawful for the judge or inspectors of any such election to receive any ballot or ballots from any person or persons embraced in the provisions and subject to the disability imposed by said act of Congress, approved March 3d, 1865, and it shall be unlawful for any such person to offer to vote any ballot or ballots.

SEC. 2. That if any such judge and inspectors of election, or any one of them shall receive or consent to receive any such unlawful ballot or ballots from any such disqualified person, he or they so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, he shall for each offence, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment in the jail of the proper county for not less than sixty days.

SEC. 3. That if any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, shall, at any election hereafter to be held in this commonwealth, vote, or tender to the officers thereof, and offer to vote, a ballot or ballots, any person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this commonwealth, shall for each offence be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this act in case of officers of election receiving any such unlawful ballot or ballots.

SECTION 4. That if any person shall hereafter persuade or advise any person or persons, deprived of citizenship or disqualified as aforesaid, to offer any ballot or ballots to the officers of any election hereafter to be held in this Commonwealth, or shall persuade, or advise, any such officer to receive any ballot, or ballots, from any person deprived of citizenship, and disqualified as aforesaid, such person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof in any court of quarter sessions of this Commonwealth, shall be punished in like manner as is provided in the second section of this act in the case of officers of such election receiving such unlawful ballot or ballots.

Particular attention is directed to the first section of the Act of Assembly, passed the 30th day of March A. D., 1866, entitled "An Act regulating the manner of Voting at all Elections, in the several counties of this Commonwealth;"

"That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby, hereafter, authorized and required to vote, by tickets, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and be labelled outside "judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace all the names of State officers voted for, and be labelled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator, member, and members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

Grant wants peace.

Up and at them!

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the 67th section of the act aforesaid, the judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of the election of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one of the judges from each district at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the third day after the day of election, being for the present year on Friday, the 6th of November next, then and there to do and perform the duties required by law of said judges. Also, that where a judge by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken in charge by one of the inspectors or clerks of the election of said district, and shall do and perform the duties required of said judge unable to attend.

Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clk. in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

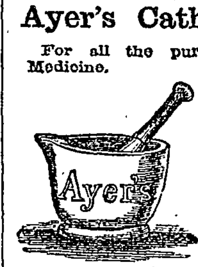
Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.



Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
